2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Drumfad National School is a co-educational Primary School under the management of the Presbyterian Church Presbytery of Derry and Donegal. The School's Code of Behaviour reflects the Christian values promoted within the school, thus providing a safe and happy environment for the pupil to learn in.

- We aim to promote a broad, balanced curriculum for the child within which the intellectual, spiritual, physical, moral and cultural needs of the child are identified and addressed.
- The child is the common interest between the parents and the teachers. We believe that the more developed the partnership between parents and School, the better the outcome for the child.
- Parents are a natural link between the classroom and the community with a wide range of skills to offer. The school is envisaged as a vital, busy, happy place with teachers and parents working in co-operation.
- Drumfad N.S. will endeavour to enhance the self-esteem of everyone in the school community, to imbue in the pupils respect for people and property and to encourage them to take responsibility for themselves.
- Drumfad NS aims to promote gender equity amongst teachers and pupils in all areas of the curriculum and school life.
- Drumfad N.S. will participate both individually and collectively in the professional and personal development of teachers through staff development programmes, thus ensuring that teachers are part of an ever changing curriculum, and therefore enhancing the teaching and learning in the school.

4. Categories of Special Educational Needs catered for in the school/special class

Children with special needs will be resourced in accordance with the level of resources provided by the Department of Education and Science to the Board of Management. The Board of Management may request copies of medical and/or psychological reports in order to assess the school's ability to provide for the child's education. Notwithstanding the availability of such resources, parents of children who are unsatisfied with the level of educational provision in our school, are advised to consider a special school which is designed and resourced to specifically cater for the needs of children with special educational needs. A copy of Drumfad N.S. Special Needs Policy is available for inspection.

Children enrolled in Drumfad N.S. are required to co-operate with and support the School/Board of Management's Code of Behaviour, Substance Misuse Policy as well as all policies on curriculum, organisation and management.
